See you IN CHURCH Sunday

Let the hammer threaten as it will. Let the sickle cut and slash. The impregnable rock of Scripture will stand. The hammer blows will falter; the sickle's edge will grow dull; the Word endures. It is our hope forever.

The Crescent shall not throw down the cross from the Heavens. Dean Inge of St. Paul's Cathedral in London, England, thrills the Christian world with the news that one hundred million Russians have refused to bow their knees before the Kremlin Baal. Communism will fail among the common people of the world. Freedom and a sense of human worth are the Bible's gift to mankind.

How much are you and I doing to combat Communism in these United States? How much do we prize and practice Democracy? How faithful are we to the Christian Church? The truer we are to Christ, the less will Communism spread among us. So, withstand the attacks of Hammer and Sickle with your trust in the living Word. Read and obey the Bible of your fathers.

With the Hope that More People Will Come to Church this Series is Sponsored by The Torrance Ministerial Association and Made Possible by the Following Civic Leaders . . .

Reflections

By J. Hugh Sherfey, Jr.

YOU'RE A TEACHER

Marie Gomez, a bride, moved into a district of shabby homes; hers became a bower of colorful flowers. Other women emulated her. That district was a show place. Alex Martin took his son, "Carry your own load and part of your neighbor's, if necessary." Tom Martin, the boy, grew to be a leader of men. On the outside of the page we see a father who hesitates at STOP signs, steals right-of-way, ignores traffic citations; his son emulates him, cuts classes, lies when truth would be easier, becomes a problem child. In every act and gesture we are teaching the man at our elbow to do as we do.

A Traffic Officer stopped a prominent man for a minor traffic violation. The man was furious, boiled over. The Officer asked to see his driver's license. The man granted impatience. The Officer smiled and said, "You are a prominent man. You're a teacher; others follow you." The man's anger died. He held out his hand. "You make me ashamed of myself. Where's the ticket?" The Officer chuckled as he returned the license. "There'll be no next time," the man promised.

How to make good telephone service even better...

You won't miss important calls if you're a good telephone neighbor

Your party-line neighbors will consider you a real friend if you remember that often, they, or someone in your family may be expecting an important incoming telephone call. These other simple points will also help to insure better service: When you have a series of calls to make, allow a few minutes between them • Replace the receiver properly after calling • Always make sure the line is clear before you make your calls.

faster long distance service can be yours, if you give the operator the out-of-town number you're calling—rather than just the name and address. That way, you see, you won't have to wait while she finds out the number from "Information" in the distant town you're calling.
